Communion at Central United Methodist Church

United Methodists celebrate an open table—all are welcome to receive communion if you desire to draw close to God through faith in Jesus Christ, regardless of church membership or denomination.

If you cannot come forward, please let an usher know, and communion will be brought to you. You may stand or kneel as you are comfortable, or simply commune in spirit through prayer at the rail or in your pew.

Children are welcome at the Lord's Table, with parents/guardians deciding when they are ready to participate.

Sunday School teachers and others with duties right after worship are invited to come forward with those first served, so you may then prepare for your class or other responsibilities.
